

Please do not change the wisconsin Do-not-call list. The law as it is written has been a huge benefit to me as a consumer. I do not need or want anyone to call me. I am perfectly capable of contacting someone, if I need something. To allow banks or any other company to call says that as a consumer I am too dumb to find the phone number when I need something. Please do not change the law.